

I feel strongly that we need actionable items. We have been talking about this for years. If AGF could provide leadership to the approval of Zolvix, Startec, and/or Q fever vaccine, this would provide a great message to the American goat producers as to why they should be members of this organization.

-

Reid Redden, PhD
830.591.3213 cell